

*Centennial Conference at the Hungarian Academy of Sciences
Budapest, 28 September 2018*

“Psychoanalysis and Society – Then and Now –” will mark the 100th anniversary of the 5th International Psychoanalytic Congress. The Centennial Conference was planned as an international scholarly event as part of a joint project of the Sándor Ferenczi Society and the Petőfi Literary Museum called “Budapest on the Couch: Psychoanalysis and the Arts, 1908–1944”. The first part of the project series was to be an exhibition and reception at the Ferenczi House the day before the conference.

Unfortunately, due to certain political turbulence, it turned out mid-August that the Petőfi Literary Museum would not be able to participate in the joint project, thus causing delays in finalizing the conference programme as well.

We are delighted to be able to tell you that the finalized conference programme is ready (see attached).

Attendance at the Conference is free, but registration is required.
