

The BALINTS and THEIR WORLD: OBJECT RELATIONS and BEYOND

International Conference

Saturday 8th December & Sunday 9th December
9.30am – 5.30pm

Michael Balint was an important figure in the story of contemporary psychoanalysis.

This conference brings together an interdisciplinary network of psychoanalysts, social thinkers, historians, literary scholars, artists, and medical doctors who draw on Michael Balint's work in a variety of ways.

CO-ORGANISED BY
Birkbeck University
Imago International
BPAS
Wellcome Trust
UK Balint Society

Themes include 'The Basic Fault', 'Primary Love', 'Thrills and Regressions' and 'Balint Groups', Balint's pioneering work with doctors. We consider the emergence of these ideas and techniques and reflect on their importance for contemporary clinical practice.

For Programme and timetable please go to www.freud.org.uk

Registration: Weekend £130/£100 Day tickets £70/£55 (£5 and £10 discounts for Members of the Freud Museum)

For registration please go to www.freud.org.uk
All ticket categories include lunch and refreshments.

