Alberto Fergusson and Miguel Gutiérrez-Peláez
Sándor Ferenczi: A Contemporary Introduction

"The book presents Ferenczi as a person; his discovery of psychoanalysis and his relationship with Freud; the theoretical and clinical novelties he introduced to psychoanalysis; his deep political and social commitment, striving for the democratization of psychoanalysis; and the great relevance of his thought and perspective for the future. It also talks about his repression in the history of psychoanalysis as well as his influence in the following generations of psychoanalysts. The reader will be presented with the most relevant historical milestones and concepts, as well as an informed viewpoint of his legacy, the contemporary readings of his work and the institutions and associations that continue following the path traced by l'enfant terrible of psychoanalysis." - Routledge

Alberto Fergusson M.D. is a psychiatrist and psychoanalyst working in Colombia and in the U.S. In 1982, he founded the Institute of Accompanied Auto-analysis. An advocate of the human rights of the so-called mentally ill, he developed “Accompanied Self-Rehabilitation”, also called “Accompanied Auto-Analysis” (AA), a unique alternative to traditional psychiatric treatments. He is the Founder FUNGRATA in Colombia and FAS in Washington DC, innovative institutions that develop therapeutic strategies to accompany so-called mentally ill people. He worked on the concepts of “therapeutic towns” and “mutual recovery”. He has been actively involved in the peace process in Colombia both in the negotiations with the National Liberation Army (ELN) and in the Truth Commission. He has worked as a consultant for the Department of Mental Health in Washington DC and in Middlebury (Vermont) teaching the method of “Accompanied Auto-analysis”. Full professor of the Universidad del Rosario (Colombia), where he has created the Center for Psychosocial Studies (CEPPS). Founding member of the Colombian group “Aperturas en Psicoanálisis” (“Openings in Psychoanalysis”).

Miguel Gutiérrez-Peláez PhD, is a psychologist and psychoanalyst working in Bogotá, Colombia. He is Full Professor of the Center for Psychosocial Studies (CEPSS) and Psychology Program of the Universidad del Rosario (Colombia). Dr. Gutiérrez-Peláez is a psychologist from the Pontificia Universidad Javeriana and obtained his “Masters degree in psychoanalysis” and “PhD in psychology” from the Universidad de Buenos Aires (Argentina). He is a member of the World Association of Psychoanalysis and the New Lacanian School. He is the author of various publications in indexed journals on issues related to trauma, art and mental illness, and psychosocial interventions in armed conflict scenarios. He is author of the books Confusion of Tongues. A Return to Sandor Ferenczi (Routledge, 2018), Art and psychoanalysis. Unique (artistic) inventions of singular subjects (Universidad del Rosario, 2018, co-edited with Beatriz García Moreno) and Sandor Ferenczi. A Critical Introduction (Routledge, 2022, co-authored with Alberto Fergusson).

Dr. Annie Reiner is a senior faculty member and training analyst at The Psychoanalytic Center of California (PCC) in Los Angeles. Her work was greatly influenced by Wilfred Bion, with whom she studied in the 1970's. She lectures throughout the world, is published in numerous journals and anthologies, and is the author of three psychoanalytic books, including—The Quest for Conscience & The Birth of the Mind (Karnac 2009), and Bion and Being: Passion and the Creative Mind (Karnac 2012), which James Grotstein (2012) said ranked Dr. Reiner, "... high among Bion scholars." Her most recent book is, Bion's Theories of Mind: A Contemporary Introduction (Routledge, 2022). Dr. Reiner is also a poet and painter. In addition to her psychoanalytic writings, she is the author of a book of short stories, four books of poems, and six children's books which she also illustrated. She supervises and maintains a psychoanalytic practice in Beverly Hills, California.

Mark F. Poster, MD is a member of the PINE Psychoanalytic Society of New England. He is trained in internal medicine, oncology, psychiatry, and psychoanalysis. He has written about Sandor Ferenczi's relationship with Georg Groddeck, war trauma, and the role of "common factors" in psychotherapy. He is retired from the staff of the Veterans Administration Boston Healthcare System and from the faculty of Harvard Medical School where he was an Assistant Professor of Psychiatry. He lives in West Newton, Massachusetts.
